B. Immediately upon rendering a decision granting relief provided in Subsection A of this Section, the judge shall cause to have prepared a Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, as provided in R.S. 46:2136.2(C), shall sign such order, and shall immediately forward it to the clerk of court for filing, all without delay on the day that the order is issued.

C. The clerk of the issuing court shall transmit the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order to the Judicial Administrator's Office, Louisiana Supreme Court for entry into the Louisiana Protective Order Registry, as provided in R.S. 46:2136.2(A), by facsimile transmission, mail, or direct electronic input, where available; as expeditiously as possible, but no later than the end of the next business day after the order is filed with the clerk of court. The clerk of the issuing court shall also send a copy of the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, R.S. 46:2136.2(C), or any modification thereof, to the chief law enforcement official of the parish where the person or persons protected by the order reside. A copy of the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order shall be retained on file in the office of the chief law enforcement officer until otherwise directed by the court.

Section 2. R.S. 14:79(B), (C), (E), and (F) are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

$79. Violation of protective orders

B.(1) On a first conviction for violation of protective orders which does not involve a battery to or any crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) against the person protected by the protective order, the offender shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both.

(2) On a second conviction for violation of protective orders which does not involve a battery to or any crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) against the parameters to or any crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) against the involve a battery to or any crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) against the

- (2) On a second conviction for violation of protective orders which does not involve a battery to or any crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) against the person protected by the protective order, regardless of whether the second offense occurred before or after the first conviction, the offender shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars and imprisoned for not less than forty-eight hours nor more than six months. At least forty-eight hours of the sentence of imprisonment imposed under this Paragraph shall be without benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence. If a portion of the sentence is imposed with benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence, the court shall require the offender to participate in a court-approved domestic abuse counseling program.
- (3) On a third or subsequent conviction for violation of protective orders which does not involve a battery to or any crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) against the person protected by the protective order, regardless of whether the current offense occurred before or after the earlier convictions, the offender shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars and imprisoned for not less than fourteen days nor more than six months. At least fourteen days of the sentence of imprisonment imposed under this Paragraph shall be without benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence. If a portion of the sentence is imposed with benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence, the court shall require the offender to participate in a court-approved domestic abuse counseling program, unless the offender has previously been required to participate in such program and, in the discretion of the judge, the offender would not benefit from such counseling.

C.(1) Whoever is convicted of the offense of violation of protective orders where the violation involves a battery to or any crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) against the person protected by the protective order, and who has not been convicted of violating a protective order or of an assault or battery upon the person protected by the protective order within the five years prior to commission of the instant offense, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars and imprisoned for not less than fourteen days nor more than six months. At least fourteen days of the sentence of imprisonment imposed under this Paragraph shall be without benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence. If a portion of the sentence is imposed with benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence, the court shall require the offender to participate in a court-approved domestic abuse counseling program as part of that probation.

(2) Whoever is convicted of the offense of violation of protective orders where the violation involves a battery to or any crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) against the person for whose benefit the protective order is in effect, and who has been convicted not more than one time of violating a protective order or of an assault or battery upon the person for whose benefit the protective order is in effect within the five-year period prior to commission of the instant offense, regardless of whether the instant offense occurred before or after the earlier convictions, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars and imprisoned for not less than three months nor more than six months. At least fourteen days of the sentence of imprisonment imposed under this Paragraph shall be without benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence. If a portion of the sentence is imposed with benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence, the court shall require the offender to participate in a court-approved domestic abuse counseling program, unless the offender has previously been required to participate in such program and, in the discretion of the court, the offender would not benefit from such counseling.

(3) Whoever is convicted of the offense of violation of protective orders where the violation involves a battery to or any crime of violence as defined by R.S. 14:2(B) against the person for whose benefit the protective order is in effect, and who has more than one conviction of violating a protective order or of an assault or battery upon the person for whose benefit the protective order is in effect during the five-year period prior to commission of the instant offense, regardless of whether the instant offense occurred before or after the earlier convictions, the offender shall be fined not more than two thousand dollars and imprisoned with or without hard labor for not less than one year nor more than five years. At least one year of the sentence of imprisonment imposed under this Paragraph shall be without benefit of probation, parole, or suspension of sentence.

13	2140 are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:
14	§2135. Temporary restraining order
15	* * *
16	G. Immediately upon entering a temporary restraining order, the judge shall
17	cause to have prepared a Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, as provided in R.S.
18	46:2136.2(C), shall sign such order, and shall immediately forward it to the clerk of
19	court for filing, all without delay on the day that the order is issued.
20	H. The clerk of the issuing court shall transmit the Uniform Abuse
21	Prevention Order to the Judicial Administrator's Office, Louisiana Supreme Court
22	for entry into the Louisiana Protective Order Registry, as provided in R.S.
23	46:2136.2(A), by facsimile transmission, mail, or direct electronic input, where
24	available, as expeditiously as possible, but no later than the end of the next business
25	day after the order is filed with the clerk of court. The clerk of the issuing court shall
26	also send a copy of the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, R.S. 46:2136.2(C), or any
27	modification thereof, to the chief law enforcement official of the parish where the
28	person or persons protected by the order reside. A copy of the Uniform Abuse

2	officer until otherwise directed by the court.
3	* * *
4	§2136.2. Louisiana Protective Order Registry
5	A. In order to provide a statewide registry for abuse prevention orders to
6	prevent domestic and dating violence and to aid law enforcement, prosecutors, and
7	the courts in handling such matters, there shall be created a Louisiana Protective
8	Order Registry administered by the Judicial Administrator's Office, Louisiana
9	Supreme Court. The Judicial Administrator's Office shall collect the data transmitted
10	to it from the courts of the state and shall immediately enter it into the Louisiana
11	Protective Order Registry.
12	* * *
13	D. The clerk of the issuing court shall immediately send a copy of the order
14	or any modification thereof to the Louisiana Protective Order Registry as
15	expeditiously as possible but no later than by the end of the next business day after
16	the order is filed with the clerk of court. Transmittal of the Uniform Abuse
17	Prevention Order may shall be made by facsimile transmission, mail, or direct
18	electronic input, where available, as expeditiously as possible, but no later than the
19	end of the next business day after the order is filed with the clerk of court.
20	* * *
21	§2140. Law enforcement officers; duties
22	A. Whenever a law enforcement officer has reason to believe that a family
23	or household member or dating partner has been abused and the abusing party is in
24	violation of a temporary restraining order, a preliminary or permanent injunction, or
25	a protective order issued pursuant to R.S. 9:361 et seq., R.S. 9:372, R.S. 46:2131 et
26	seq., R.S. 46:2151, Children's Code Article 1564 et seq., Code of Civil Procedure
27	Articles 3604 and 3607.1, or Code of Criminal Procedure Articles 30, 327.1, 335.2,
28	and 871.1, the officer shall immediately arrest the abusing party.

Prevention Order shall be retained on file in the office of the chief law enforcement

1	B. Whenever a law enforcement officer has reason to believe that a family
2	or household member or dating partner has been abused, and the abusing party is not
3	in violation of a restraining order, a preliminary or permanent injunction, or a
4	protective order, the officer shall immediately use all reasonable means to prevent
5	further abuse, including:
6	(1) Arresting the abusive party with a warrant or without a warrant pursuant
7	to Code of Criminal Procedure Article 213, if probable cause exists to believe that
8	a felony has been committed by that person, whether or not the offense occurred in
9	the officer's presence.
10	(2) Arresting the abusive party in case of any misdemeanor crime which
11	endangers the physical safety of the abused person whether or not the offense
12	occurred in the presence of the officer. If there is no cause to believe there is
13	impending danger, arresting the abusive party is at the officer's discretion.
14	(3) Assisting the abused person in obtaining medical treatment necessitated
15	by the battery; arranging for, or providing, or assisting in the procurement of
16	transportation for the abused person to a place of shelter or safety.
17	(4) Notifying the abused person of his right to initiate criminal or civil
18	proceedings; the availability of the protective order, R.S. 46:2136; and the
19	availability of community assistance for domestic violence victims.
20	B.C.(1) When a law enforcement officer receives conflicting accounts of
21	domestic abuse or dating violence, the officer shall evaluate each account separately
22	to determine if one party was the predominant aggressor.
23	(2) In determining if one party is the predominant aggressor, the law
24	enforcement officer may consider any other relevant factors, but shall consider the
25	following factors based upon his or her observation:
26	(a) Evidence from complainants and other witnesses.
27	(b) The extent of personal injuries received by each person.
28	(c) Whether a person acted in self-defense.
29	(d) An imminent threat of future injury to any of the parties.

1	(e) Prior complaints of domestic abuse or dating violence, if that history can
2	be reasonably ascertained by the officer.
3	(f) The future welfare of any minors who are present at the scene.
4	(g) The existence of a temporary restraining order, a preliminary or
5	permanent injunction, or a protective order issued pursuant to R.S. 9:361 et seq., R.S.
6	9:372, R.S. 46:2131 et seq., R.S. 46:2151, Children's Code Article 1564 et seq., Code
7	of Civil Procedure Articles 3604 and 3607.1, or Code of Criminal Procedure Articles
8	30, 327.1, 335.2, and 871.1. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the
9	predominant aggressor is the person against whom the order was issued.
10	(3)(a) If the officer determines that one person was the predominant
11	aggressor in a felony offense, the officer shall arrest that person. The arrest shall be
12	subject to the laws governing arrest, including the need for probable cause as
13	otherwise provided by law.
14	(b) If the officer determines that one person was the predominant aggressor
15	in a misdemeanor offense, the officer shall arrest the predominant aggressor if there
16	is reason to believe that there is impending danger or if the predominant aggressor
17	is in violation of a temporary restraining order, a preliminary or permanent
18	injunction, or a protective order issued pursuant to R.S. 9:361 et seq., R.S. 9:372,
19	R.S. 46:2131 et seq., R.S. 46:2151, Children's Code Article 1564 et seq., Code of
20	Civil Procedure Articles 3604 and 3607.1, or Code of Criminal Procedure Articles
21	30, 327.1, 335.2, and 871.1. If there is no threat of impending danger or no violation
22	of a temporary restraining order, a preliminary or permanent injunction, or a
23	protective order, the officer may arrest the predominant aggressor at the officer's
24	discretion, whether or not the offense occurred in the presence of the officer. An
25	arrest pursuant to the provisions of this Subparagraph shall be subject to the laws
26	governing arrest, including the need for probable cause as otherwise provided by
27	law. The exceptions provided for in R.S. 46:2140 shall apply.
28	(4) As used in this Subsection:
29	(a) "Dating violence" has the meaning as defined in R.S. 46:2151(C).

1	(b) "Domestic abuse" has the meaning as defined in R.S. 46:2132(3).
2	Section 4. Children's Code Articles 1569(H) and (I) and 1570(E), (G), and (H) are
3	hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:
4	Art. 1569. Temporary restraining order
5	* * *
6	H. Immediately upon rendering a decision granting the relief requested by
7	the petitioner, the judge shall cause to have prepared a Uniform Abuse Prevention
8	Order, as provided in R.S. 46:2136.2(C), shall sign such order, and shall immediately
9	forward it to the clerk of court for filing, all without delay on the day that the order
10	is issued .
11	I. If a temporary restraining order is issued or extended, the clerk of the 12	issuing court shall transmit the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order to the Judicial
13	Administrator's Office, Louisiana Supreme Court for entry into the Louisiana
14	Protective Order Registry, as provided in R.S. 46:2136.2(A), by facsimile
15	transmission, mail, or direct electronic input, where available, as expeditiously as
16	possible, but no later than the end of the next business day after the order is filed
17	with the clerk of court. The clerk of the issuing court shall also send a copy of the 18	Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, R.S. 46:2136.2(C), or any modification thereof,
19	to the chief law enforcement official of the parish where the person or persons
20	protected by the order reside. A copy of the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order shall
21	be retained on file in the office of the chief law enforcement officer until otherwise
22	directed by the court.
23	Art. 1570. Protective orders; content; modification; service
24	* * *
25	E. A protective order made under this Chapter shall be served on the person
26	to whom the order applied in open court at the close of the hearing, or in the same
27	manner as a writ of injunction. The clerk of the issuing court shall send a copy of
28	the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, R.S. 46:2136.2(C), or any modification thereof
29	to the chief law enforcement official of the parish where the person or persons

2	be retained on file in the office of the chief law enforcement officer as provided
3	herein until otherwise directed by the court.
4	* * *
5	G. Immediately upon rendering a decision granting the relief requested by
6	the petitioner, the judge shall cause to have prepared a Uniform Abuse Prevention
7	Order, as provided in R.S. 46:2136.2(C), shall sign such order, and shall immediately
8	forward it to the clerk of court for filing, all without delay on the day that the order
9	is issued.
10	H. If a protective order is issued or modified, or a consent agreement is
11	agreed to or modified, the clerk of the issuing court shall transmit the Uniform Abuse
12	Prevention Order to the Judicial Administrator's Office, Louisiana Supreme Court
13	for entry into the Louisiana Protective Order Registry, as provided in R.S.
14	46:2136.2(A), by facsimile transmission, mail, or direct electronic input, where
15	available, as expeditiously as possible, but no later than the end of the next business
16	day after the order is filed with the clerk of court. The clerk of the issuing court shall
17	also send a copy of the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, R.S. 46:2136.2(C), or any
18	modification thereof, to the chief law enforcement official of the parish where the
19	person or persons protected by the order reside. A copy of the Uniform Abuse
20	Prevention Order shall be retained on file in the office of the chief law enforcement
21	officer until otherwise directed by the court.
22	* * *
23	Section 5. Code of Civil Procedure Article 3607.1 is hereby amended and reenacted
24	to read as follows:
25	Art. 3607.1. Registry of temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction or
26	permanent injunction, their dissolution or modification
27	A. Immediately upon rendering a decision granting the petitioner a
28	temporary restraining order or a preliminary or permanent injunction prohibiting a
29	person from harming a family or household member or dating partner, the judge shall protected by the order reside. A copy of the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order shall cause to have prepared a Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, as provided in R.S. 46:2136.2(C), shall sign such order, and shall immediately forward it to the clerk of court for filing, all without delay on the day that the order is issued.

B. Where a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction relative to domestic abuse or dating violence is issued, dissolved, or modified, the clerk of court shall transmit the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order to the Judicial Administrator's Office, Louisiana Supreme Court for entry into the Louisiana Protective Order Registry, as provided in R.S. 46:2136.2(A), by facsimile transmission, mail, or direct electronic input, where available, as expeditiously as possible, but no later than the end of the next business day after the order is filed with the clerk of court. The clerk of the issuing court shall also send a copy of the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, R.S. 46:2136.2(C), or any modification thereof, to the chief law enforcement official of the parish where the person or persons protected by the order reside. A copy of the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order shall be retained on file in the office of the chief law enforcement officer until otherwise directed by the court.

Section 6. Code of Criminal Procedure Articles 30(B), 327.1, 335.2(C), and 871.1 are hereby amended and reenacted to read as follows:

19 Art. 30. The peace bond

20 * * *

B. If the peace bond is for the purpose of preventing domestic abuse or dating violence, the magistrate shall cause to have prepared a Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, as provided in R.S. 46:2136.2(C), shall sign such order, and shall immediately forward it to the clerk of court for filing, all without delay on the day that the order is issued. Moreno HB No. 750

Abstract: Provides relative to restraining orders, protective orders, and injunctions issued in conjunction with domestic abuse cases.

Present law provides that the La. Protective Order Registry is a statewide registry for abuse prevention orders to prevent domestic and dating violence and to aid law enforcement, prosecutors, and the courts in handling cases of domestic violence.

Present law provides that any judge issuing any protective or restraining order shall cause to have prepared a Uniform Abuse Prevention Order, or "Uniform Order", which shall be forwarded to the clerk of court for filing.

Proposed law retains present law but adds the requirement that the judge who prepares the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order shall immediately forward it to the clerk of court for filing on the day that the order was issued.

Present law further provides that the clerk of court for the issuing court shall then transmit the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order to the La. Protective Order Registry by facsimile, mail, or direct electronic input no later than the end of the next business day after the order is filed with the clerk of court.

Proposed law amends present law to provide that the Uniform Abuse Prevention Order shall be provided to the registry by the clerk of the issuing court by facsimile or direct electronic input and further requires the clerk of the issuing court to provide a copy to the chief law enforcement official of the parish where the person or persons protected by the order reside.

Upon receipt of such orders, present law requires Judicial Administrator's Office to enter the information into the registry.

Proposed law requires the Judicial Administrator's Office to immediately enter such orders into the registry.

Present law provides that the crime of violation of protective orders includes the willful disobedience of an order issued to require a defendant to stay away from a specific person or persons as a condition of his release on bond, probation, or parole.

Present law provides increased penalties for violations of protective orders which involve a battery against the person who is protected by the protective order.

CODING: Words in struck through type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

Proposed law amends present law to provide that the increased penalties apply for violations of protective orders that involve a battery or any crime of violence as defined by present law against the person.

Present law provides that law enforcement officers shall use every reasonable means, including but not limited to immediate arrest of the violator, to enforce a preliminary or permanent injunction, a temporary restraining order or ex parte protective order, or a protective order obtained pursuant to present law.

Proposed law retains present law but provides that law enforcement officers shall at a minimum issue a summons to any person in violation of a protective order.

Present law provides for the duties of law enforcement relative to domestic abuse and provides that when the officer has reason to believe that a family or household member or dating partner has been abused, the officer shall immediately use all reasonable means to prevent further abuse.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that whenever a law enforcement officer has reason to believe that a family or household member or dating partner has been abused and the abusing party is in violation of a protective order issued pursuant to present law, the officer shall immediately arrest the abusing party.

Present law provides guidelines for the law enforcement officer to determine which party in a domestic dispute is the predominant aggressor. In making this determination, present law requires law enforcement to consider certain factors.

Proposed law retains present law and requires the law enforcement to also consider the existence of a protective order and further provides that there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the predominant aggressor is the person against whom the order was issued.

Present law provides that when the officer determines that one person was the predominant aggressor in a misdemeanor offense, the officer shall arrest the predominant aggressor if there is reason to believe there is impending danger; otherwise, the officer has discretion in whether to make the arrest.

Proposed law retains present law and requires the officer to also make an arrest if the predominant aggressor is in violation of a protective order.
