154 has rendered a false statement regarding any of the provisions of sections 571.101 to 571.121.
155 If the applicant is found to be ineligible, the sheriff is required to deny the application, and notify

158 Upon receiving any additional documentation, the sheriff shall reconsider his or her decision and 159 inform the applicant within thirty days of the result of the reconsideration. The applicant shall 160 further be informed in writing of the right to appeal the denial pursuant to subsections 2, 3, 4, 161 and 5 of section 571.114. After two additional reviews and denials by the sheriff, the person

162 submitting the application shall appeal the denial pursuant to subsections 2, 3, 4, and 5 of section 163 571.114.

164 7. If the application is approved, the sheriff shall issue a concealed carry permit to the 165 applicant within a period not to exceed three working days after his or her approval of the 166 application. The applicant shall sign the concealed carry permit in the presence of the sheriff or 167 his or her designee.

168 8. The concealed carry permit shall specify only the following information:

182 record of an application that was approved shall be kept for a period of one year after the 183 expiration and nonrenewal of the permit.

184 (2) The sheriff shall report the issuance of a concealed carry permit or provisional permit
185 to the concealed carry permit system. All information on any such permit that is protected

190 Information retained in the concealed carry permit system under this subsection shall not be 191 distributed to any federal, state, or private entities and shall only be made available for a single 192 entry query of an individual in the event the individual is a subject of interest in an active

202 designee thereof. Any state agency that has retained any documents or records, including 203 fingerprint records provided by an applicant for a concealed carry endorsement prior to August 204 28, 2013, shall destroy such documents or records, upon successful issuance of a permit.
