AN ACT relating to criminal laws; revising provisions governing credits for offenders sentenced for certain crimes; revising provisions governing the sealing and removal of certain records; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law provides that certain credits to the sentence of an offender
2 convicted of certain category C, D or E felonies must be deducted from the 3 minimum term imposed by the sentence until the offender becomes eligible for 4 parole and from the maximum term imposed by the sentence, except in certain 5 circumstances. (NRS 209.4465) Section 1 of this bill adds to the exceptions that an 6 offender who has been convicted of being a habitual criminal or a habitual felon 7 may not have credits applied to both the minimum and maximum term imposed by 8 the sentence. Section 1 further provides that an offender convicted of a category B 9 felony also qualifies to have certain credits deducted from the minimum term 10 imposed by the sentence until the offender becomes eligible for parole and from the 11 maximum term imposed by the sentence, except in certain circumstances.

12 Existing law authorizes a person arrested for alleged criminal conduct to 13 petition for the sealing of all records relating to the arrest if the charges were 14 dismissed or the person was acquitted of the charges. (NRS 179.255) Section 1.3 of 15 this bill authorizes such a person to petition for the sealing of all records relating to 16 an arrest if the prosecuting attorney declines to prosecute the charges.

17 Existing law also provides that a person arrested, or issued a citation or a 18 warrant, for alleged criminal conduct may apply to the Central Repository for 19 Nevada Records of Criminal History to remove the record of criminal history if the 20 charge was dismissed, acquittal was entered or the disposition of the charge was
