

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 33

By Harrison

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Freddie D. Alley of Church Hill.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Freddie D. Alley; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Alley was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, Freddie Alley served with acumen and alacrity as a land surveyor and local developer, in which position he earned the respect of his peers and superiors alike for the exemplary quality of his work; he was the former owner of Hugh E. Alley & Sons and Alley & Associates, Inc., in Kingsport; and

WHEREAS, he was a charter and fellow member of the Tennessee Association of Professional Surveyors, the first group of licensed surveyors in the State, which he served in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, dedicated to the betterment of his community, Freddie Alley served on the Church Hill Regional Planning Commission beginning in 2004 and had served as the commission's chairman since 2006; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Alley was also deeply devoted to his family, and he always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, Freddie Alley enjoyed the loving companionship of his wife of fifty years, Barbara Alley, and was the proud father of Chris (Patti) Alley and Angela (Teddy) Alley Necessary, and the proud grandfather of Carissa and Kierra Alley; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Alley is also survived by his brother, Bo (Carylon) Alley, his brother-in-law, J.C. (Norma) Fraysier, several nieces and nephews, and special friends Bill and Glenda Powers; and

WHEREAS, Freddie Alley leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of Freddie D. Alley, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Alley.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
