

114TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. 3069

To prevent terrorists from obtaining firearms or explosives.

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 16, 2016

Mr. TOOMEY introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

---

A BILL

To prevent terrorists from obtaining firearms or explosives.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. FIGHTING TERRORISM AND UPHOLDING DUE
4       PROCESS.

5       (a) SHORT TITLE.—This section may be cited as the 6       “Fighting Terrorism and Upholding Due Process Act”.

7       (b) PREVENTING THE TRANSFER OF A FIREARM AND 8       THE ISSUANCE OR MAINTENANCE OF A FIREARMS OR EX-9       PLOSIVES LICENSE OR PERMIT TO DANGEROUS TERROR-10     ISTS.—Chapter 44 of title 18, United States Code, is 11     amended by inserting after section 922 the following:

1     “§ 922A. Attorney General’s discretion to prohibit 2                 transfer of a firearm and deny or revoke
3                 a license or permit

4     “(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

5                 “(1) the term ‘Foreign Intelligence Surveillance
6                 Court’ has the meaning given the term in section 7                 701 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 8                 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1881);

9                 “(2) the term ‘material support or resources’
10                 shall include all actions prohibited by section 2339A;

11                 “(3) the term ‘terrorism’ shall include ‘international terrorism’ and ‘domestic terrorism’, as defined in section 2331; and

14                 “(4) the term ‘Terrorism Firearm Screening
15                 List’ means the list developed by the Attorney General under subsection (b)(4).

17     “(b) DEVELOPMENT OF TERRORISM FIREARM
18     SCREENING LIST.—

19                 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General may 20                 develop a list of persons for whom the Attorney General determines, for each person, that—

22                 “(A) there is probable cause to believe the 23                 person is or has been engaged in conduct constituting, in preparation for, in aid of, or in support of terrorism, or providing material support or resources for terrorism; and

1                 “(B) there is reason to believe the person
2                 may use a firearm in connection with terrorism.

3                 “(2) REQUIREMENT.—The Attorney General
4                 shall submit to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance 5                 Court—

6                 “(A) the list of persons developed under 7                 paragraph (1); and

8                 “(B) the information and documents, in 9                 unredacted form, supporting the Attorney Gen-10                 eral’s determinations as to which persons are 11                 included on the list.

12                 “(3) DETERMINATION.—Using the list, infor-
13                 mation, and documents submitted under paragraph 14                 (2), the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court shall 15                 determine, for each person on the list, whether—

16                 “(A) there is probable cause to believe the 17                 person is or has been engaged in conduct con-18                 stituting, in preparation for, in aid of, or in 19                 support of terrorism, or providing material sup-20                 port or resources for terrorism; and

21                 “(B) there is reason to believe the person
22                 may use a firearm in connection with terrorism.

23                 “(4) CONSOLIDATED LIST.—The Attorney Gen-24                 eral shall establish a list of persons whom the For-25                 eign Intelligence Surveillance Court determines meet

1       the criteria described in paragraph (3), to be known
2       as the ‘Terrorism Firearm Screening List’.

3       “(c) PERIODIC UPDATING AND REVIEW OF TER-
4       RORISM FIREARM SCREENING LIST.—

5           “(1) UPDATES TO THE LIST.—The Attorney
6       General may, after the development of the Terrorism 7       Firearm Screening List, add additional persons to 8       the Terrorism Firearm Screening List by following 9       the procedures set forth in subsection (b) for each 10      person to be added.

11       “(2) PERIODIC JUDICIAL REVIEW.—

12           “(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 1 year 13       after the date of enactment of this section, and 14       once every year thereafter, the Attorney Gen-
15       eral shall submit to the Foreign Intelligence
16       Surveillance Court the Terrorism Firearm
17       Screening List.

18           “(B) REVIEW.—The Foreign Intelligence
19       Surveillance Court shall review the Terrorism
20       Firearm Screening List submitted under sub-
21       paragraph (A) to determine whether any person
22       on the list should be removed by reason of no 23       longer satisfying the requirements described in 24       subsection (b)(3).

1               “(C) PRODUCTION OF INFORMATION.—

2               Upon request of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court, the Attorney General shall provide to the Court any information the Court determines necessary to conduct the review required under subparagraph (B).

7               “(D) REMOVAL OF NAMES.—In conducting
8               a review under subparagraph (B), if the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court determines 9               that a person should be removed from the Terrorism Firearm Screening List because the person no longer satisfies the requirements described in subsection (b)(3), the Attorney General shall remove such person from the Terrorism Firearm Screening List.

16             “(d) AUTHORITY TO PROHIBIT FIREARM TRANS-17 FERS AND To DENY OR REVOKE LICENSES AND PER-18 MITS.—In accordance with subsection (e), the Attorney
19 General may prohibit a person who is listed on the Ter-
20 rorism Firearm Screening List in accordance with sub-21 sections (b) and (c), or for whom there is probable cause 22 to believe the person is or has been engaged in conduct 23 constituting, in preparation for, in aid of, or in support 24 of terrorism, or providing material support or resources

1 for terrorism, and there is reason to believe the person 2 may use a firearm in connection with terrorism, from—

3                 “(1) participating in the transfer of a firearm 4 under section 922;

5                 “(2) receiving or maintaining a firearms license 6 under section 923; and 7                 “(3) receiving or maintaining a license or per-8 mit for explosive materials under section 843.

9                 “(e) PROCEDURE FOR PROHIBITING FIREARM 10 TRANSFER OR DENYING OR REVOKING A LICENSE OR 11 PERMIT.—

12                 “(1) PROCEDURE WITH REGARD TO PERSONS
13 INCLUDED ON THE TERRORISM FIREARM SCREENING
14 LIST.—If the Attorney General prohibits the trans-15 fer of a firearm or denies or revokes a license or per-16 mit for firearms or explosive materials under sub-17 section (d) for a person who is listed on the Ter-
18 rrorism Firearm Screening List—

19                 “(A) the Attorney General shall—20                         “(i) not later than 7 days after the 21 prohibition, denial, or revocation, file a pe-22 petition to sustain the prohibition, denial, or 23 revocation in the district court of the 24 United States for the district in which—

1                         “(I) the firearm transfer was at-2                         tempted;

3                         “(II) the licensee or permit hold-4                         er is located; or

5                         “(III) the applicant for a license 6                         or permit is located; and 7                         “(ii) submit to the district court of 8                         the United States in which the petition de-9                         scribed in clause (i) is filed, the evidence 10                         the Attorney General relied upon in deter-11                         mining that the person should be added to 12                         Terrorism Firearm Screening List and any 13                         exculpatory evidence that the Attorney 14                         General possesses or has access to;

15                         “(B) the person to whom the prohibition, 16                         denial, or revocation applies, shall be entitled 17                         to—

18                         “(i) a hearing at which the person 19                         may be represented by counsel and a final 20                         judgment by the district court of the 21                         United States not later than 60 days after 22                         the date on which the attempted transfer 23                         of a firearm occurred or the Attorney Gen-24                         eral denied or revoked a license or permit 25                         for firearms or explosive materials; and

1                     “(ii) in the case of an appeal of the 2 decision of the district court of the United 3 States, a decision by the reviewing court 4 not later than 90 days after the date on 5 which the district court of the United 6 States issues the decision; and

7                     “(C) the district court of the United States 8 in which the petition described in clause (i) is 9 filed—

10                    “(i) shall allow the Attorney General, 11 for information the United States has de-12 termined would likely compromise national 13 security, to submit summaries and re-
14 dacted versions of documents;

15                    “(ii) shall review any summaries and 16 redacted versions of documents to ensure 17 that the person to whom the prohibition, 18 denial, or revocation applies is receiving 19 fair and accurate representations of the 20 underlying information and documents;

21                    “(iii) shall ensure that any summaries 22 and redacted versions of documents accept-
23 ed into evidence are fair and accurate rep-
24 resentations of the underlying information
25 and documents;

1                 “(iv) shall provide copies of any summaries and redacted versions of documents 2                 to the person to whom the prohibition, denial, or revocation applies;

5                 “(v) shall not consider the full, undisclosed information or documents in deciding 6                 whether to sustain the Attorney General’s decision to include the person on the 7                 Terrorism Firearm Screening List; and

10                 “(vi) shall issue an order that the Attorney General’s action prohibiting the transfer of a firearm or denying or revoking a license or permit for a firearm or explosive material was not authorized unless the Attorney General demonstrates—

16                 “(I) there is probable cause to believe the person is or has been engaged in conduct constituting, in preparation for, in aid of, or in support of terrorism, or providing material support or resources for terrorism; and 23                 “(II) there is reason to believe the person may use a firearm in connection with terrorism.

1                 “(D) RELIEF.—If a person who was sub-2                 ject to a prohibition, denial, or revocation de-3                 scribed in this paragraph prevails in a pro-
4                 ceeding under this paragraph, including on ap-5                 peal, the person shall be entitled to all costs, in-6                 cluding reasonable attorney’s fees, and the At-7                 torney General shall immediately remove the in-8                 dividual from the Terrorism Firearm Screening
9                 List.

10                 “(2) PROCEDURE WITH REGARD TO PERSONS
11                 NOT ON THE TERRORISM FIREARM SCREENING
12                 LIST.—If the Attorney General prohibits the trans-
13                 fer of a firearm or revocation of a license or permit 14                 for firearms or explosive materials under subsection
15                 (d) for a person who is not listed on the Terrorism
16                 Firearm Screening List, the following procedures 17                 shall apply:

18                 “(A) TEMPORARY EX PARTE ORDER PRO-
19                 HIBITING TRANSFER OR SUSTAINING REVOCA-
20                 TION.—

21                 “(i) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney
22                 General—

23                 “(I) may deny the firearm trans-24                 fer or revoke the license or permit for

“(II) shall file an emergency petition to temporarily prohibit the attempted transfer or sustain the revocation of a license or permit for 7 additional days, with such petition being filed with the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court or a Federal district court (provided that if the Attorney General files with a Federal district court, the Attorney General can and will comply with all the requirements of this paragraph, including the requirement to submit to the court the information and documents, in unredacted form, that support the Attorney General’s petition); and

1                   filed by the Attorney General under clause
2                   (i) unless the Attorney General dem-
3                   onstrates—

4                         “(I) there is probable cause to 5                         believe the person is or has been en-6                         gaged in conduct constituting, in 7                         preparation for, in aid of, or in sup-8                         port of terrorism, or providing mate-
9                         rial support or resources for ter-10                         rorism; and 11                         “(II) there is reason to believe 12                         such person may use a firearm in con-13                         nection with terrorism.

14                         “(iii) TRANSFER ALLOWED.—If an 15                         order is not issued under this paragraph 16                         within the period described in section 17                         922(t)(1)(B)(ii), the firearm transfer may 18                         proceed or the revocation of the license or 19                         permit shall be canceled.

20                         “(B) ADVERSARIAL COURT PROCEEDING
21                         TO OBTAIN A FINAL ORDER PROHIBITING 22                         TRANSFER OF A FIREARM OR REVOKING A LI-
23                         CENSE OR PERMIT.—

1                 “(i) IN GENERAL.—If the Attorney 2 General wishes to extend an order that is 3 issued under subparagraph (A)(ii)(II)—

4                 “(I) the Attorney General shall—5                 “(aa) within 7 days after the 6 order was granted under sub-

7 paragraph (A)(ii)(II), file a peti-8 tion for a final order prohibiting 9 the transfer of a firearm or sus-
10 taining the revocation of a license
11 or permit, with such petition 12 being filed in the district court of 13 the United States in which the 14 firearm transfer was attempted 15 or the licensee or permit holder is 16 located; and

17                 “(bb) submit to the district 18 court of the United States in 19 which the petition described in 20 item (aa) is filed, the evidence
21 supporting the Attorney Gen-
22 eral’s petition and any excul-
23 patory evidence that the Attorney
24 General possesses or has access
25 to;

1                     “(II) the person whose attempted 2                     firearm transfer was blocked shall be 3                     entitled to—

4                     “(aa) a hearing at which the 5                     person may be represented by 6                     counsel and a final judgment by 7                     the district court of the United 8                     States not later than 60 days 9                     after the date on which the at-10                  tempted transfer of a firearm oc-
11                  curred or Attorney General re-
12                  voked a license or permit for fire-13                  arms or explosive materials; and 14                  “(bb) in the case of an ap-15                  peal of the decision of the district

16                  court of the United States, a de-17                  cision by the reviewing court not 18                  later than 90 days after the date 19                  on which the district court of the 20                  United States issues the decision; 21                  and 22                  “(III) the district court of the 23                  United States in which the petition

24                  described in subclause (I) was filed—

1                     “(aa) shall allow the Attorney 2                     General, for information the 3                     United States has determined 4                     would likely compromise national 5                     security, to submit summaries
6                     and redacted versions of documents;

7
8                     “(bb) shall review any summaries and redacted versions of documents to ensure that the person to whom the prohibition or revocation applies is receiving fair and accurate representations of the underlying information and documents;

9
11
12
13
14
15                     “(cc) shall ensure that any summaries and redacted versions of documents accepted into evidence are fair and accurate representations of the underlying information and documents;

16
17
18
19
20
21
22                     “(dd) shall provide copies of any summaries and redacted versions of documents to the person to whom the prohibition or revocation applies;

“(ee) shall not consider the full, undisclosed information or documents in deciding whether to sustain the Attorney General’s prohibition or revocation; and “(ff) shall issue an order rejecting the Attorney General’s petition unless the Attorney General demonstrates there is probable cause to believe the person is or has been engaged in conduct constituting, in preparation for, in aid of, or in support of terrorism, or providing material support or resources for terrorism, and there is reason to believe such person may use a firearm in connection with terrorism.

“(ii) EFFECT.—The temporary, executive order issued under paragraph (A) shall remain in effect until the proceeding under this paragraph is resolved.

1                     “(iii) RELIEF.—If a person who was 2                     prohibited from participating in the trans-
3                     fer of a firearm or had a license or permit
4                     for firearms or explosive materials revoked
5                     prevails in a proceeding under clause (i),
6                     including on appeal, the person shall be en-7                     titled to all costs, including reasonable at-8                     torney’s fees, and the Attorney General
9                     shall immediately remove the individual
10                    from the Terrorism Firearm Screening
11                    List.

12                    “(iv) ADDITION TO TERRORISM FIRE-
13                    ARM SCREENING LIST.—If the Attorney 14                    General prevails in a proceeding under 15                    clause (i), including on appeal, the Attor-16                    ney General may add the person to the 17                    Terrorism Firearm Screening List.”.

18                 (c) TRANSPARENCY.—Not later than 60 days after 19                 the date of the enactment of this Act, and quarterly there-20                 after, the Attorney General shall submit to the Committee
21                 on the Judiciary and the Select Committee on Intelligence 22                 of the Senate and the Committee on the Judiciary and 23                 the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the 24                 House of Representatives a report providing the following 25                 information:

1                     (1) The number of persons added to the Ter-
2 rrorism Firearm Screening List established under 3 section 922A of title 18, United States Code, as 4 added by this Act, during the reporting period.

5                     (2) The number of persons whose names the 6 Attorney General submitted to the Foreign Intel-
7 ligence Surveillance Court pursuant to section
8 922A(b)(2) of title 18, United States Code, as added
9 by this Act, during the reporting period.

10                  (3) The number of persons described in para-
11 graph (2) whom the Foreign Intelligence Surveil-
12 lance Court determined, pursuant to section
13 922A(b)(2) of title 18, United States Code, as added
14 by this Act, that there was not—

15                     (A) probable cause to believe the person is 16 or has been engaged in conduct constituting, in 17 preparation for, in aid of, or in support of ter-
18 rrorism, or providing material support or re-19 sources for terrorism; or

20                     (B) reason to believe the person may use 21 a firearm in connection with terrorism.

22                  (d) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

23                  (1) TABLE OF SECTIONS.—The table of sections 24 for chapter 44 of title 18, United States Code, is 20        tered by a district court of the United States pursu-21        ant to section 922A(e) of this title,” after “this 22        chapter.”.

23           (12) ATTORNEY GENERAL’S ABILITY TO WITH-24        HOLD INFORMATION IN EXPLOSIVES LICENSE AND 25        PERMIT DENIAL AND REVOCATION SUITS.—Section

1       843(e) of title 18, United States Code, is amended
2       in paragraph (1), by inserting after the first sen-
3       tence the following: “However, if the denial or rev-4       ocation is based upon the person being disqualified
5       pursuant to section 922A of this title any informa-
6       tion which the Attorney General relied on for adding 7       the person to the Terrorism Firearm Screening List 8       established by section 922A of this title or obtaining 9       a court order under section 922A(e) of this title, this 10      determination may be withheld from the petitioner if 11      the Attorney General determines that disclosure of 12      the information would likely compromise national se-13      curity.”.

14                     (13) ABILITY TO WITHHOLD INFORMATION IN 15                     COMMUNICATIONS TO EMPLOYERS.—Section
