A BILL

To reform restrictions on the importation of firearms and ammunition.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Sporting Firearms Ac-5 cess Act of 2025”.

6 SEC. 2. IMPORTATION OF FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION.

7 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 925(d) of title 18, United 8 States Code, is amended—

1 (1) by redesignating paragraphs (1) through 2 (4) as subparagraphs (A) through (D), respectively,
3 and adjusting the margins accordingly;

4 (2) by striking “The Attorney General shall au-5 thorize” and inserting the following:

6 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General shall 7 authorize”;

8 (3) by striking “The Attorney General shall 9 permit” and inserting the following:

10 “(3) CONDITIONAL IMPORTATION.—The Attor-11 ney General shall permit”; and 12 (4) by inserting after paragraph (1), as so des-13 ignated, the following:

14 “(2) DETERMINATION REGARDING IMPORTA-
15 TION FOR SPORTING PURPOSES.—

16 “(A) DEFINITION.—For purposes of para-17 graph (1)(C), the term ‘generally recognized as 18 particularly suitable for or readily adaptable to 19 sporting purposes’, with respect to a firearm or 20 ammunition, includes a firearm or ammunition
21 that is designed and intended by the manufac-22 turer for such uses as hunting, recreational tar-23 get shooting, organized and governed competi-
24 tions, or civilian rifle match competitions.

25 “(B) DEADLINE FOR DETERMINATION.—

1           “(i) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 90 2           days after the date on which a person at-3           tempting to import or bring in a firearm or 4           ammunition under paragraph (1)(C) re-
5           quests a determination of whether the im-6           portation or bringing in of the firearm or 7           ammunition will be allowed under that 8           paragraph, the Attorney General shall 9           make the determination.

10           “(ii) DEEMED ALLOWANCE.—If the 11           Attorney General does not make a deter-
12           mination regarding a firearm or ammuni-
13           tion described in clause (i) by the date 14           specified in that clause, the importation or 15           bringing in of the firearm or ammunition 16           shall be deemed to have been allowed as of 17           that date.

18           “(C) FORM OF DENIAL.—If the Attorney 19           General denies the importation or bringing in of 20           a firearm or ammunition under paragraph 21           (1)(C), the Attorney General shall—22           “(i) provide the person attempting to 23           import or bring in the firearm or ammuni-

24           tion with the basis for the denial, in writ-25           ing; and

1           “(ii) post the basis for the denial on 2           the website of the Bureau of Alcohol, To-3           bacco, Firearms, and Explosives.

4           “(D) DENIAL OF SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR 5           FIREARMS OR AMMUNITION PROHIBITED.—

6           “(i) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney 7           General may not deny the importation or 8           bringing in of a firearm or ammunition
9           under paragraph (1)(C) that is substan-
10          tially similar to firearms or ammunition 11          that are in circulation in the United 12          States.

13          “(ii) DEFINITION.—The Attorney
14          General shall define the term ‘substantially 15          similar’ for purposes of clause (i)—

16                 “(I) in consultation with rep-
17                 resentatives of the firearms industry, 18                 including hunting guides, shooting
19                 magazine editors, State game commis-
20                 sioners, organized competitive hunting
21                 and shooting groups, law enforcement 22                 agencies or organizations, firearms in-23                 dustry members and trade associa-
24                 tions, and interest and information 25                 groups; and

1                   “(II) with reference to processes 2                   used by the Attorney General as of 3                   the date of enactment of the Sporting 4                   Firearms Access Act of 2025 that ex-
5                   amine the physical and technical char-
6                   acteristics of firearms and ammuni-
7                   tion and the similarity of those phys-8                   ical and technical characteristics to 9                   the physical and technical characteris-10                  tics of firearms and ammunition in 11                  circulation within the United States.

12                  “(E) HEARING.—If the Attorney General 13                  denies an application for the importation or 14                  bringing in of a firearm or ammunition under 15                  paragraph (1)(C), the Attorney General shall, 16                  upon request by the aggrieved party, promptly
17                  hold a hearing to review the denial at a location 18                  convenient to the aggrieved party.

19                  “(F) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—

20                  “(i) IN GENERAL.—If, after a hearing
21                  held under subparagraph (E), the Attorney
22                  General decides not to reverse a determina-
23                  tion to deny an application under para-24                  graph (1)(C), the Attorney General shall

1 give notice of that decision to the ag-
2 grievied party.

3 “(ii) PETITION FOR JUDICIAL RE-4 VIEW.—Not later than 60 days after the 5 date on which notice is given under clause
6 (i), the aggrieved party may file a petition 7 with the United States district court for 8 the district in which the aggrieved party 9 resides or has his or her principal place of 10 business for a de novo judicial review of 11 the denial.

12 “(iii) CONSIDERATION OF EVI-
13 DENCE.—In a proceeding conducted under 14 this subparagraph, the court may consider 15 any evidence submitted by the parties to 16 the proceeding whether or not the evidence 17 was considered at the hearing held under 18 subparagraph (E).

19 “(iv) BURDEN OF PROOF.—In a pro-
20 ceeding conducted under this subpara-21 graph, the Attorney General shall have the 22 burden of proof to establish that the fire-
23 arm or ammunition is not generally recog-
24 nized as particularly suitable for or readily 25 adaptable to sporting purposes, including

1 by establishing that the firearm or ammu-
 2 nition is not substantially similar to fire-
 3 arms or ammunition that are in circulation
 4 in the United States, as described in sub-5 paragraph (D).

6 “(v) REVERSAL OF DECISION; ATTOR-
 7 NEY FEES.—If the court decides that the 8 Attorney General was not authorized to 9 deny the application, the court shall—

10 “(I) order the Attorney General
 11 to take such action as may be nec-12 essary to comply with the judgment of 13 the court; and 14 “(II) award reasonable attorney 15 fees to the aggrieved party.”.

16 (b) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

17 (1) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Section
 18 161A(b) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (42 19 U.S.C. 2201a(b)) is amended by striking “section 20 925(d)(3)” and inserting “section 925(d)(1)(C)”.

21 (2) SUBSECTION HEADINGS.—Section 925 of 22 title 18, United States Code, is amended—

23 (A) in subsection (d), by inserting after the 24 subsection enumerator the following: “IMPOR-
 25 TATION RELATING TO SCIENTIFIC OR RE-

1 SEARCH PURPOSES, COMPETITION OR TRAIN-2 ING, CURIOS AND MUSEUM PIECES, SPORTING 3 PURPOSES, AND PREVIOUSLY REMOVED FIRE-
4 ARMS AND AMMUNITION.—”;

5 (B) in subsection (e), by inserting after the 6 subsection enumerator the following: “IMPOR-
7 TATION OF CURIOS AND RELICS BY LICENSED 8 IMPORTERS.—”; and

9 (C) in subsection (f), by inserting after the 10 subsection enumerator the following: “IMPOR-
11 TATION OF UNDETECTABLE FIREARMS.—”.
