6           entific evidence supports the identification of 7           doses of the chemical substance below which no
8           adverse effects can be expected to occur; and

9           “(F) in the case of a risk evaluation re-
10          quested by a manufacturer under paragraph

9                   the absence of a rule under subsection (a), an 10                  unreasonable risk of injury to health or the envi-
11                  ronment, the Administrator shall—

12                  “(i) propose a rule under subsection

1       under this subsection, the Administrator may ex-
2       tend the deadline under subparagraph (A) ac-
3       cordingly, except that the deadline may not be 4       extended to a date that is later than—

5             “(i) 90 days after receipt of such addi-

6             tional information; or

7             “(ii) 2 years after the original dead-

8             line.

14         substance does not and will not present an un-
15         reasonable risk of injury to health or the envi-

25         risk of injury to health or the environment if the

1       Administrator determines that the chemical sub-
2       stance, under the intended conditions of use, pre-

4       jury to 1 or more potentially exposed subpopula-
5       tions.

6           “(C) FINAL ACTION.—A final determination
7       under this subsection that a chemical substance
8       will not present an unreasonable risk of injury
9       to health or the environment shall be considered
10      a final agency action.

11          “(7) MINIMUM NUMBER.—Subject to the avail-

1           are necessary to protect against the identified 2           risk;

3           “(C) based on the information published
4           under subparagraph (A), in deciding whether to 5           prohibit or restrict in a manner that substan-

7           stance or mixture and in setting an appropriate
8           transition period for such action, determine
9           whether technically and economically feasible al-
10          ternatives that benefit health or the environment,
11          compared to the use so proposed to be prohibited

13          substitute when the proposed prohibition or other 14          restriction takes effect;

15           “(D) exempt replacement parts designed 16          prior to the date of publication in the Federal 17          Register of the rule unless the Administrator

21          tions; and

22           “(E) in selecting among prohibitions and 23          other restrictions to address an identified risk,

20               continue to be met.

21               “(4) CONDITIONS.—The Administrator shall im-
22               pose conditions on any use for which an exemption

12      finding under subsection (b)(3)(A)(i), or a manufac-
13      turer requests a risk evaluation under subsection
14      (b)(3)(A)(ii), with respect to a chemical substance,
