

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 147

Supporting efforts to bring an end to violence perpetrated by Boko Haram, and urging the Government of Nigeria to conduct transparent, peaceful, and credible elections.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 4, 2015

Ms. WILSON of Florida submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

RESOLUTION

Supporting efforts to bring an end to violence perpetrated by Boko Haram, and urging the Government of Nigeria to conduct transparent, peaceful, and credible elections.

Whereas Nigeria is the most populous nation in Africa, with the largest economy;

Whereas Nigeria is currently confronted with threats to internal security by terrorists, insurgents, and communal violence that have caused considerable population displacement, and at the same time must administer transparent and peaceful elections with a credible outcome;

Whereas the government and those who aspire to hold office in Nigeria must demonstrate the political will to address both of these challenges in a responsible way, including by ensuring full enfranchisement, with particular emphasis sis on developing a means for enfranchisement for the hundreds of thousands displaced by violence;

Whereas the members of Jama'atu Ahlis Sunna Lidda'awati wal-Jihad, commonly known as Boko Haram, have terrorized the people of Nigeria with increasing violence since 2009, targeting military, government, and civilian sites in Nigeria, including schools, mosques, churches, markets, villages, and agricultural centers, and killing thousands and abducting hundreds of civilians in Nigeria and the surrounding countries;

Whereas the United States Department of State named several individuals linked to Boko Haram, including its leader, Abubakar Shekau, as Specially Designated Global Terrorists in 2012, and designated Boko Haram as a Foreign Terrorist Organization (FTO) in November 2013;

Whereas in May 2014, the United Nations Security Council added Boko Haram to its al Qaeda sanctions list, and on January 19, 2015, the United Nations Security Council issued a Presidential statement condemning the recent escalation of attacks in northeastern Nigeria and surrounding countries and expressing concern that the situation was undermining peace and security in West and Central Africa;

Whereas the over 200 school girls abducted by Boko Haram on April 14, 2014, from the Government Girls Secondary School in the northeastern state of Borno, whose kidnapping sparked domestic and international outrage spawning the Twitter campaign #BringBackOurGirls, are still missing;

Whereas the militant group is an increasing menace to the countries along Nigeria's northeastern border, prompting the African Union, the Lake Chad Basin Commission, the European Union, and the United Nations Security Council to recognize that there must be a regional response;

Whereas the United States Government has stepped forward to offer assistance through intelligence sharing, bilateral and international sanctioning of Boko Haram leaders, counterterrorism assistance through the Global Security Contingency Fund program for countries in the region to counter the militant group, and humanitarian services to populations affected by and vulnerable to Boko Haram violence;

Whereas Boko Haram emerged partially as a response to underdevelopment in northeastern Nigeria, and inequality, elite impunity, and alleged human rights abuses by security forces may be fueling anti-government sentiment;

Whereas it is clear that a military approach alone will not eliminate the threat of Boko Haram, and gross human rights abuses and atrocities by security forces causes insecurity and mistrust among the civilian population;

Whereas it is imperative that the Government of Nigeria implement a comprehensive, civilian security focused plan that prioritizes protecting civilians and also addresses legitimate political and economic grievances of citizens in northern Nigeria;

Whereas election-related violence has occurred in Nigeria in successive elections, including in 2011, when nearly 800 people died in clashes following the Presidential election;

Whereas President Goodluck Ebele Azikiwe Jonathan, General Muhammadu Buhari, and other Presidential candidates pledged to reverse this trend by signing the “Abuja Accord” on January 14, 2015, in which they committed themselves and their campaigns to refraining from public statements that incite violence, to running issue-based campaigns that do not seek to divide citizens along religious or ethnic lines, and to supporting the impartial conduct of the electoral commission and the security services;

Whereas Secretary of State John Kerry visited Nigeria on January 25, 2015, to emphasize the importance of ensuring the upcoming elections are peaceful, nonviolent, and credible;

Whereas Nigeria was scheduled to hold national elections in February 2015, but the elections were postponed by 6 weeks to protect polling stations;

Whereas tensions in the country remain high, and either electoral fraud or violence could undermine the credibility of the upcoming election;

Whereas the people of Nigeria deserve a fair, competently executed, and secure electoral process, as well as an outcome that can be accepted peacefully by all citizens; and

Whereas it is in the best interest of the United States to maintain close ties with Nigeria: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) condemns Boko Haram for its violent attacks, particularly the indiscriminate targeting of civilians, especially women and girls, and the use of children as fighters and suicide bombers;

1 (2) stands with—

2 (A) the people of Nigeria in their right to
3 live free from fear or intimidation by state or
4 nonstate actors, regardless of their ethnic, reli-
5 gious, or regional affiliation;

6 (B) the people of Cameroon, Chad, and
7 Niger who are increasingly at risk of becoming
8 victims of Boko Haram’s violence; and

9 (C) the international community in its ef-
10 forts to defeat Boko Haram;

11 (3) supports the Abuja Accord, and calls on
12 candidates, party officials, and adherents of all polit-
13 ical movements to comply with the code of conduct
14 spelled out therein, by refraining from any rhetoric
15 or action that seeks to demonize or delegitimize op-
16 ponents, sow division among Nigerians, or otherwise
17 inflame tensions;

18 (4) condemns any and all abuses of civilians by
19 security forces of the Government of Nigeria;

20 (5) urges the Government of Nigeria to—

21 (A) conduct timely, credible, transparent,
22 and peaceful elections;

23 (B) refrain from using security services for
24 political purposes in connection with the elec-
25 tions;

- 1 (C) prioritize the safety and security of Ni-
 2 gerians vulnerable to Boko Haram attacks;
- 3 (D) implement a comprehensive, civilian
 4 security focused response to defeat Boko
 5 Haram that addresses political and economic
 6 grievances of citizens in the north;
- 7 (E) improve the capacity and conduct of 8 Nigeria's security forces, including respect for
 9 human rights, and take steps to hold account-
 10 able through a transparent process those mem-
 11 bers of the security forces responsible for 12 abuses;
- 13 (F) recognize that security forces are in-
 14 tended to protect the safety and security of all
 15 citizens equally; and
- 16 (G) cooperate with regional and inter-
 17 national partners to defeat Boko Haram;
- 18 (6) urges all Nigerians to engage in the elec-
 19 toral process, to insist on full enfranchisement, and
 20 to reject inflammatory or divisive rhetoric or actions;
 21 and
- 22 (7) reaffirms that the people of the United
 23 States will continue to stand with the people of Ni-
 24 geria in support of peace and democracy.
