

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. RES. 273

Expressing the sense of the Senate regarding the need for reconciliation in Indonesia and disclosure by the United States Government of events surrounding the mass killings during 1965 and 1966.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER 1, 2015

Mr. UDALL submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Senate regarding the need for reconciliation in Indonesia and disclosure by the United States Government of events surrounding the mass killings during 1965 and 1966.

Whereas, on October 1, 1965, 6 Indonesian Army generals were killed by military personnel, including members of Indonesia's Presidential Guard, and these killings were blamed on the Indonesian Communist Party and labeled an "attempted Communist coup d'état";

Whereas this alleged coup was used to justify the mass killing of alleged supporters of the Indonesian Communist Party, with estimates of the number of dead ranging from 500,000 to 1,000,000 killed;

Whereas the targeted individuals were predominantly unarmed civilians, and often included members of trade unions, intellectuals, teachers, ethnic Chinese, and those involved in the women's movement;

Whereas these killings and the imprisonment of up to 1,000,000 targeted individuals were done without due process of law;

Whereas the targeted individuals were subject to extrajudicial execution, torture, rape, forced disappearance, forced labor, and forced eviction;

Whereas the United States Central Intelligence Agency, in a 1968 research study, described the period as one of the worst mass murders of the twentieth century;

Whereas the United States Government provided the Indonesian Army with financial, military, and intelligence support during the period of the mass killings, and did so aware that such killings were taking place as recorded in partially declassified documents in the Department of State history, "Foreign Relations of the United States", pertaining to this period;

Whereas, within months of military leader Suharto's assumption of the Presidency following the mass killing, the United States Government began sending economic and military support to Suharto's military regime, and played an indispensable role in its consolidation of power;

Whereas aid to the Suharto government continued for more than 3 decades, despite on-going crimes against humanity committed by the Suharto government, including mass killing and other gross violations of human rights during the invasion and subsequent 24-year occupation of East Timor;

Whereas perpetrators of the 1965 and 1966 mass killings have largely lived with impunity, and the survivors and descendants of the victims suffer continuing economic discrimination and had limited civil and political rights for decades, as noted in the 2012 report by the Indonesian National Commission on Human Rights;

Whereas the United States Government has not yet fully declassified all relevant documents concerning this time period, and full disclosure could help bring historical clarity to atrocities committed in Indonesia during 1965 and 1966;

Whereas the United States Government has recently supported the declassification and release of documents in support of truth and reconciliation efforts following periods of violence in countries such as Chile and Brazil;

Whereas open dialogue about alleged past crimes against humanity and past human rights violations is important for continued efforts to reconcile populations of Indonesia and to ensure a stable, sustainable peace that will benefit the region and beyond;

Whereas, Indonesia has undergone a remarkable democratic transition over the last 2 decades, and is the world's third largest democracy with the largest Muslim population in the world;

Whereas through free and fair elections, the people of Indonesia have elected new leaders who now have the opportunity to establish a culture of accountability in partnership with the country's vibrant civil society, press, academia, and human rights activists;

Whereas the relationship between the United States and Indonesia is strong and involves many shared interests, as reflected in the 2010 United States-Indonesia Comprehensive Partnership, including democracy and civil society, education, security, climate and environment, energy, and trade and investment;

Whereas the economic relationship between the United States and Indonesia is strong, with bilateral goods trade exceeding $27,000,000,000 and with major United States companies making significant long-term investments in Indonesia; and

Whereas strong relations between the United States and Indonesia are mutually beneficial to both countries; Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) condemns the mass murder in Indonesia
3 during 1965 and 1966;

4 (2) expresses great concern about the lack of
5 accountability enjoyed by those who carried out
6 crimes during this period;

7 (3) urges political leaders in Indonesia—

8 (A) to consider a truth, justice, and rec-
9 onciliation commission to address alleged crimes
10 against humanity and other human rights vi-
11 tions; and

12 (B) to work to mend differences and ani-
13 mosity that remain after the mass killings dur-
14 ing 1965 and 1966; and

15 (4) calls on the Department of State, the De-
16 partment of Defense, the Central Intelligence Agen-

1 cy, and others involved in developing and imple-
2 menting policy towards Indonesia during this time
3 period to establish an interagency working group—

4 (A) to locate, identify, inventory, rec-
5 ommend for declassification, and make available
6 to the public all classified records and docu-
7 ments concerning the mass killings of 1965 and 8 1966, including records and documents per-
9 taining to covert operations in Indonesia from 10 January 1, 1964, through March 30, 1966;

11 (B) to coordinate with Federal agencies
12 and take such actions as necessary to expedite
13 the release of such records to the public; and

14 (C) to submit a report to Congress that 15 describes all such records, the disposition of 16 such records, and the activities of the Inter-
17 agency Group.

○