

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 4192

To establish a grant program to encourage States to adopt certain policies and procedures relating to the transfer and possession of firearms.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 31, 2017

Ms. MOORE (for herself, Ms. KELLY of Illinois, and Ms. NORTON) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To establish a grant program to encourage States to adopt certain policies and procedures relating to the transfer and possession of firearms.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Domestic Violence Gun
5 Homicide Prevention Act of 2017”.

6 SEC. 2. GRANT PROGRAM REGARDING FIREARMS.

7 (a) GRANT PROGRAM.—

8 (1) AUTHORITY TO MAKE GRANTS.—The Direc-
9 tor of the Office of Community Oriented Policing
10 Services of the Department of Justice may make

1 grants to eligible States to assist the State in car-
2 rying out the policies, procedures, protocols, laws, or
3 regulations described in subsection (b).

4 (2) ELIGIBLE STATE.—A State shall be eligible
5 to receive grants under this subsection on and after 6 the date on which the Attorney General determines
7 that the State has in effect policies, procedures, pro-
8 tocols, laws, or regulations described in subsection
9 (b).

10 (3) USE OF FUNDS.—Funds awarded under
11 this section may be used by a State to assist law en-
12 forcement agencies or the courts of the State in car-
13 rying out the policies, procedures, protocols, laws, or
14 regulations described in subsection (b).

15 (4) APPLICATION.—An eligible State desiring a
16 grant under this section shall submit to the Director
17 of the Office of Community Oriented Policing Serv-
18 ices an application at such time, in such manner,
19 and containing or accompanied by such information,
20 as the Director may reasonably require.

21 (b) STATE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES.—The poli-
22 cies, procedures, protocols, laws, or regulations described
23 in this subsection are policies, procedures, protocols, laws,
24 or regulations relating to the possession or transfer of fire-

1 arms or ammunition (as those terms are defined in section
2 921 of title 18, United States Code) that—

3 (1) impose restrictions and penalties substan-
4 tially similar to or more comprehensive than those 5 described in paragraphs (8) and (9) of subsection
6 (d) and paragraphs (8) and (9) of subsection (g) of 7 section 922 of title 18, United States Code;

8 (2) requires the seizure or surrender of all fire-
9 arms and ammunition from an individual—

10 (A) convicted of any crime for which the 11 restrictions or penalties described in paragraph 12 (1) apply; or

13 (B) against whom any court has issued a
14 protection order, as defined in section 2266(5)
15 of title 18, United States Code;

16 (3) require the State and local courts to con-
17 sider at the initial appearance before a magistrate of 18 any individual arrested for any crime for which the
19 restrictions or penalties described in paragraph (1)
20 apply, if the individual possesses a firearm or ammu-
21 nition that has been or is likely to be used to threat-
22 en, harass, menace, or harm the victim or the vic-
23 tim's child, or may otherwise pose a danger to the 24 victim or the victim's child and issue a protection
25 order, as defined in section 2266(5) of title 18,

1 United States Code, in which the State or local 2 court shall prohibit the possession of any firearm or 3 ammunition and require the surrender or seizure of 4 any firearm or ammunition then possessed;

5 (4) give State and local law enforcement the au-
6 thority, consistent with the Constitution of the 7 United States, to seize a firearm or ammunition 8 when responding to domestic violence situations, if 9 there is probable cause to believe—

10 (A) such firearm or ammunition is contra-
11 band or illegally in the possession of the sus-
12 pected offender; and

13 (B) such firearm or ammunition has been 14 or is likely to be used to threaten, harass, men-
15 ace, or harm the victim or the victim's child, or 16 may otherwise pose a danger to the victim or 17 the victim's child; and

18 (5) provide for the safe return of any firearm
19 or ammunition seized or surrendered as described in 20 paragraph (2), (3), or (4)—

21 (A) at such time as—

22 (i) the restrictions and penalties of 23 paragraph (1) no longer apply to such in-
24 dividual;

1 (ii) the protection order described in
2 paragraph (2) or (3) is no longer in force
3 against such individual; or

4 (iii) the firearm or ammunition de-
5 scribed in paragraph (4) is determined not
6 to be contraband or illegally in the sus-
7 pected offender's possession; and

8 (B) in a manner that does not endanger 9 the safety of persons who were the victim of 10 any crime described in paragraph (1) or sus-
11 pected crime described in paragraph (4) or who 12 were the persons protected by the protection
13 order described in paragraph (2) or (3).

14 (c) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There
15 are authorized to be appropriated such sums as are nec-
16 essary to carry out this section.
