A BILL

To provide adequate protections for gun owners, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Protecting Gun Rights 5       and Due Process Act”.

6       SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS RELATING TO MENTAL HEALTH.

7       (a) TITLE 18 DEFINITIONS.—Chapter 44 of title 18, 8       United States Code, is amended—

1                             (1) in section 921(a), by adding at the end the 2                             following:

3                             “(38)(A) The term ‘has been adjudicated men-4                             tally incompetent or has been committed to a psy-5                             chiatric hospital’, with respect to a person—

6                             “(i) means the person is the subject of an 7                             order or finding by a Federal, State, or local ju-8                             dicial officer or court—

9                             “(I) that was issued after a hearing—

10                             “(aa) of which the person re-11                             ceived actual notice; and 12                             “(bb) at which the person had an 13                             opportunity to participate with coun-14                             sel; and 15                             “(II) that found that the person, as a 16                             result of marked subnormal intelligence, 17                             mental impairment, mental illness, mental 18                             incompetency, mental condition, or mental 19                             disease—

20                             “(aa) was guilty but mentally ill
21                             in a criminal case, in a jurisdiction 22                             that provides for such a verdict;

23                             “(bb) was not guilty in a criminal 24                             case by reason of insanity or mental 25                             disease or defect;

1                         “(cc) was incompetent to stand 2                         trial in a criminal case; or

3                         “(dd) was not guilty by reason of 4                         lack of mental responsibility under 5                         section 850a of title 10 (article 50a of 6                         the Uniform Code of Military Jus-7                         tice); and 8                         “(ii) does not mean—

9                         “(I) an admission to a psychiatric 10                         hospital for observation; or 11                         “(II) a voluntary admission to a psy-12                         chiatric hospital.

13                         “(B) For the purposes of this paragraph, the 14                         term ‘order or finding’ does not include—

15                         “(i) an order or finding that has expired, 16                         been dismissed, or expunged;

17                         “(ii) an order or finding that is no longer 18                         applicable because a judicial officer or court has 19                         found that the person who is the subject of the 20                         order or finding—

21                         “(I) does not present a danger to him-22                         self or herself or to others;

23                         “(II) has been restored to sanity or 24                         cured of mental disease or defect;

1                         “(III) has been restored to com-2 petency; or

3                         “(IV) no longer requires involuntary 4 inpatient or outpatient treatment by a psy-5 chiatric hospital; or

6                         “(iii) an order or finding with respect to 7 which the person who is subject to the order or 8 finding has been granted relief from disabilities
9 under section 925(c) of this title, under a pro-
10 gram described in section 101(c)(2)(A) or 105 11 of the NICS Improvement Amendments Act of 12 2007 (34 U.S.C. 40911(c)(2)(A); 34 U.S.C.
13 40915), or under any other State-authorized re-14 lief from disabilities program of the State in 15 which the original commitment or adjudication 16 occurred.

17                         “(C) For the purposes of this paragraph, the 18 term ‘actual notice’ means notice that was served to 19 the individually personally and does not mean notice 20 by publication or other general means.

21                         “(39) The term ‘psychiatric hospital’ includes a 22 mental health facility, a mental hospital, a sani-
23 tarium, or a psychiatric facility, including a psy-24 chiatric ward in a general hospital.”; and 25                         (2) in section 922—

- 1                             (A) in subsection (d)(4)— 2                                 (i) by striking “as a mental defective” 3                                 and inserting “mentally incompetent”; and 4                                 (ii) by striking “any mental institu-5                                 tion” and inserting “a psychiatric hos-6                                 pital”; and 7                             (B) in subsection (g)(4)—
8                                 (i) by striking “as a mental defective” 9                                 or who has” and inserting “mentally in-10                                 competent or has”; and 11                                 (ii) by striking “mental institution” 12                                 and inserting “psychiatric hospital”.
13                             (b) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—
14                             The NICS Improvement Amendments Act of 2007 (34 15                             U.S.C. 40902 et seq.) is amended—16                                 (1) by striking “as a mental defective” each 17                                 place that term appears and inserting “mentally in-18                                 competent”;
19                                 (2) by striking “mental institution” each place 20                                 that term appears and inserting “psychiatric hos-21                                 pital”;
22                                 (3) in section 101(c)—
23                                 (A) in paragraph (1), in the matter pre-24                                 ceding subparagraph (A), by striking “to the

1           mental health of a person” and inserting “to 2           whether a person is mentally incompetent”; and 3           (B) in paragraph (2)—

4                 (i) in subparagraph (A)(i), by striking
5                 “to the mental health of a person” and in-
6                 serting “to whether a person is mentally
7                 incompetent”; and 8                 (ii) in subparagraph (B), by striking
9                 “to the mental health of a person” and in-
10                 serting “to whether a person is mentally 11                 incompetent”; and

12           (4) in section 102(c)(3)—

13                 (A) in the paragraph heading, by striking 14                 “AS A MENTAL DEFECTIVE OR COMMITTED TO 15                 A MENTAL INSTITUTION” and inserting “AS 16                 MENTALLY INCOMPETENT OR COMMITTED TO A 17                 MENTAL INSTITUTION”; and

18                 (B) by striking “mental institutions” and 19                 inserting “psychiatric hospitals”.

20 SEC. 3. PROTECTING THE SECOND AMENDMENT RIGHTS OF 21 VETERANS.

22           (a) DEFINITION.—In this section, the term “covered 23           veteran” means a person who, on the day before the date 24           of enactment of this Act, is considered to have been adju-25           dicated as mentally incompetent or committed to a psy-

1     chiatric hospital under subsection (d)(4) or (g)(4) of sec-2     tion 922 of title 18, United States Code, as a result of 3     having been found by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs
4     to be mentally incompetent.

5                 (b) REVIEW AND CERTIFICATION.—

6                     (1) REVIEW.—The Secretary of Veterans Af-7     fairs shall not later than 90 days after the date of 8     enactment of this Act, conduct a review relating to 9     each covered veteran to determine whether the pro-10   ceedings for the adjudication or commitment of the 11   covered veteran were conducted in accordance with,
12   and resulted in an order or finding described in, sec-
13   tion 921(a)(38) of title 18, United States Code (as 14   added by this Act).

15                   (2) CERTIFICATION.—The Secretary of Vet-16   erans Affairs shall certify that the proceedings under 17   paragraph (1) were conducted in accordance with,
18   and resulted in an order or finding described in, sec-
19   tion 921(a)(38) of title 18, United States Code (as 20   added by this Act), ensure that the records of the 21   covered veteran used for purposes of any determina-
22   tion of whether the covered veteran is disqualified
23   from possessing or receiving a firearm under sub-24   section (g) or (n) of section 922 of title 18, United 25   States Code, are modified to indicate that the cov-

1       ered veteran has not been adjudicated mentally in-2       competent or committed to a psychiatric hospital.

3       (c) ENFORCEMENT.—

4               (1) IDENTIFICATION OF INACCURATE
5       RECORDS.—Not later than January 1 of each year,
6       the Attorney General shall—

7                       (A) review the record of each person who
8       is considered to have been adjudicated mentally
9       incompetent or committed to a psychiatric hos-
10      pital by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs under 11      subsection (d)(4) or (g)(4) of section 922 of 12      title 18, United States Code, as a result of hav-
13      ing been found by the Secretary of Veterans Af-14      fairs to be mentally incompetent;

15                       (B) identify each record reviewed under 16      subparagraph (A) that does not include docu-17      mentation indicating that the proceedings for 18      the adjudication or commitment were conducted 19      in accordance with, and resulted in an order or 20      finding described in section 921(a)(38) of title
21      18, United States Code, as added by this Act; 22      and

23                       (C) submit to the Secretary of the Treas-24      ury and the Committee on the Judiciary and 25      the Committee on Veterans' Affairs of the

1           House of Representatives and the Committee
2           on the Judiciary and the Committee on Vet-3           erans' Affairs of the Senate a report providing 4           the number of records identified under subpara-
5           graph (B) in the previous year.

6           (2) RESCISSION.—Effective on the date on 7           which the Attorney General submits a report under 8           paragraph (1)(C), there is rescinded from the unob-
9           ligated balances in the appropriations account ap-10          propriated under the heading “GENERAL ADMINIS-
11          TRATION” under the heading “DEPARTMENTAL AD-
12          MINISTRATION” under the heading “DEPART-
13          MENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS” the amount 14          equal to the product of—

15                 (A) the number of records that the report
16                 states were identified by the Attorney General 17                 under paragraph (1)(B); and 18                 (B) $10,000.

19           (d) APPOINTMENT OF FIDUCIARIES.—

20           (1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 55 of title 38, 21           United States Code, is amended by adding at the 22           end the following:

23           “§ 5511. Use of determinations.”

24           “No determination by the Secretary that benefits 25           under this title to which an individual is entitled shall be

1 paid to a fiduciary shall be considered to be a determina-2 tion that the individual has been adjudicated mentally in-3 competent for purposes of subsections (d)(4) and (g)(4) 4 of section 922 of title 18.”.

5                   (2) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sec-
6                   tions for chapter 55 of title 38, United States Code, 7                   is amended by adding at the end the following:
“5511. Use of determinations.”.

8 SEC. 4. USE OF DETERMINATIONS MADE BY THE COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY.

10               (a) TITLE II.—Section 205(j) of the Social Security 11 Act (42 U.S.C. 405(j)) is amended by adding at the end 12 the following:

13               “(11) No determination by the Commissioner of So-14 cial Security with respect to an individual, including a de-15 termination that benefits under this title to which such 16 individual is entitled shall be paid to a representative 17 payee, shall be considered to be a determination that the 18 individual has been adjudicated mentally incompetent for 19 purposes of subsection (d)(4) or (g)(4) of section 922 of 20 title 18, United States Code.”.

21               (b) TITLE XVI.—Section 1631(a)(2) of such Act (42 22 U.S.C. 1383(a)(2)) is amended by adding at the end the 23 following:

24               “(J) No determination by the Commissioner of Social 25 Security with respect to an individual, including a deter-

1 mination that benefits under this title to which such indi-
2 vidual is entitled shall be paid to a representative payee,
3 shall be considered to be a determination that the indi-
4 vidual has been adjudicated mentally incompetent for pur-
5 poses of subsection (d)(4) or (g)(4) of section 922 of title
6 18, United States Code.”.

7 (c) ENFORCEMENT.—

8 (1) IDENTIFICATION OF INACCURATE
9 RECORDS.—Not later than January 1 of each year,
10 the Attorney General shall—

11 (A) review the record of each person who
12 is considered to have been adjudicated mentally
13 incompetent or committed to a psychiatric hos-
14 pital under subsection (d)(4) or (g)(4) of sec-
15 tion 922 of title 18, United States Code, as a 16 result of a determination by the Commissioner
17 of Social Security Administration;

18 (B) identify each such record that does not 19 include documentation indicating that the pro-
20 ceedings for the adjudication or commitment
21 were conducted in accordance with, and re-
22 sulted in an order or finding described in, sec-
23 tion 921(a)(38) of title 18, United States Code, 24 as added by this Act; and

1                                 (C) submit to the Secretary of the Treas-
2                                      ury and Congress a report providing the num-3                                      ber of records identified under subparagraph
4                                      (B).

5                                 (2) RESCISSION.—

6                                 (A) IN GENERAL.—Effective on the date
7                                      on which the Attorney General submits a report 8                                      under paragraph (1)(C), there is rescinded from 9                                      the unobligated balances in the Federal Old-10                                  Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund, the 11                                  Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund, the 12                                  Federal Hospital Insurance Trust Fund, and 13                                  the Federal Supplementary Medical Insurance
14                                  Trust Fund, on a pro rata basis, the amount 15                                  equal to the product of—

16                                 (i) the number of records that the re-17                                      port states were identified by the Attorney 18                                  General under paragraph (1)(B); and 19                                 (ii) $10,000.

20                                 (B) TREATMENT OF AMOUNTS.—Amounts 21                                  rescinded under subparagraph (A) shall be 22                                  deemed to have been expended for costs de-23                                  scribed in section 201(g)(1) of the Social Secu-24                                  rity Act (42 U.S.C. 401(g)(1)).

1 SEC. 5. STATE HEALTH REPORTS.

2       Section 102(c)(3) of the NICS Improvement Amend-3   ments Act of 2007 (18 U.S.C. 922 note) is amended by 4   adding at the end the following: “A report made available
5   by a State indicating that a person has been adjudicated 6   as mentally incompetent or committed to a mental institu-
7   tion shall not be used for purposes of any determination 8   of whether a person is disqualified from possessing or re-9   ceiving a firearm under subsection (g) or (n) of section 10  922 of title 18, United States Code, unless the Attorney
11  General determines that the proceedings for the adjudica-12  tion or commitment were conducted in accordance with, 13  and resulted in an order or finding described in, section 14  921(a)(38) of title 18, United States Code, and that the 15  State has provided clear and convincing evidence that the 16  person poses an imminent and significant danger.”.

17 SEC. 6. APPLICABILITY OF AMENDMENTS.

18       With respect to any record of a person prohibited
19  from possessing or receiving a firearm under subsection
20  (d)(4) or (g)(4) of section 922 of title 18, United States
21  Code, before the date of enactment of this Act, the Attor-22  ney General shall remove such a record from the National 23  Instant Criminal Background Check System—

24                   (1) upon being made aware that the person is 25  no longer considered as adjudicated mentally incom-26  petent or committed to a psychiatric hospital accord-

1       ing to the criteria under paragraph (38)(A)(i)(II) of 2       section 921(a) of title 18, United States Code (as 3       added by this Act), and is therefore no longer pro-4       hibited from possessing or receiving a firearm;

5               (2) upon being made aware that any order or 6       finding that the record is based on is an order or 7       finding described in paragraph (38)(B) of section 8       921(a) of title 18, United States Code (as added by 9       this Act); or

10              (3) upon being made aware that the person has 11       been found competent to possess a firearm after an 12       administrative or judicial review under section 5511
13       of title 38, United States Code (as added by this 14       Act).
