

118TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. 5032

To amend title 10, United States Code, to restrict the sale and procurement of certain weapons and ammunition by the Department of Defense, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

SEPTEMBER 12, 2024

Ms. WARREN introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Armed Services

A BILL

To amend title 10, United States Code, to restrict the sale and procurement of certain weapons and ammunition by the Department of Defense, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Stop Militarizing Our 5 Streets Act of 2024”.

6 SEC. 2. RESTRICTION ON SALES AND PROCUREMENT BY

7           DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE OF CERTAIN 8           WEAPONS AND AMMUNITION.

9 (a) RESTRICTION.—

1                             (1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 763 of title 10, 2                             United States Code, is amended by inserting after 3                             section 7544 the following:

4                             § 7545. Restriction on sales and procurement of cer-

5                             tain weapons and ammunition

6                             “(a) PROHIBITIONS RELATING TO CERTAIN HIGHLY 7                             DANGEROUS MILITARY-GRADE WEAPONS AND AMMUNI-
8                             TION.—

9                             “(1) SALES IN COMMERCIAL MARKETPLACE.—
10                             The Secretary of Defense or a private operator of a 11                             government-owned plant may not sell to any dealer, 12                             directly or through a private contractor, in the com-13                             mercial marketplace—

14                             “(A) any military-grade assault weapon; or 15                             “(B) any covered ammunition.

16                             “(2) PROCUREMENT.—The Secretary of De-17                             fense may not procure any item from a dealer or 18                             manufacturer of firearms or ammunition that sells a 19                             military-grade assault weapon or covered ammuni-20                             tion in the commercial marketplace.

21                             “(b) LIMITATIONS RELATING TO OTHER WEAPONS
22                             AND AMMUNITION.—

23                             “(1) APPLICABILITY.—The provisions of this 24                             subsection shall apply to all firearms and ammuni-

1       tion, other than military-grade assault weapons and 2       covered ammunition.

3           “(2) SALES IN COMMERCIAL MARKETPLACE.—
4       The Secretary of Defense or a private operator of a 5       government-owned plant may not sell any firearm or 6       ammunition to any dealer in the commercial market-7       place that fails to meet the requirements described 8       in paragraph (4).

9           “(3) PROCUREMENT.—The Secretary of De-
10      fense may not procure any item from a dealer or pri-11      vate manufacturer of firearms or ammunition that 12      sells firearms or ammunition in the commercial mar-13      ketplace if the dealer or private manufacturer—

14           “(A) directly sells firearms or ammunition 15      to individual purchasers in the commercial mar-16      ketplace and fails to meet the requirements de-17      scribed in paragraph (4); or

18           “(B) sells any firearm or ammunition to 19      any dealer in the commercial marketplace that 20      fails to meets the requirements described in 21      paragraph (4).

22           “(4) REQUIREMENTS.—The requirements de-23      scribed in this paragraph for any dealer of firearms 24      or ammunition are the following:

25           “(A) The dealer must—

1                     “(i) with respect to a dealer of fire-2                     arms, have a license under chapter 44 of 3                     title 18;

4                     “(ii) with respect to a dealer of am-5                     munition, have a license under subsection 6                     (d)(1); and

7                     “(iii) comply with all requirements 8                     under Federal law for licensees under 9                     chapter 44 of title 18.

10                   “(B) In each of the previous 3 calendar 11                   years, the Attorney General has traced not 12                   more than 24 firearms used in crimes back to 13                   the dealer with a time to crime of less than 3 14                   years.

15                   “(C) With respect to a dealer that sells 16                   ammunition, during any 30-day period, the 17                   dealer may not transfer to the same individual 18                   purchaser—

19                     “(i) more than 500 rounds of covered 20                     ammunition; or

21                     “(ii) more than 1000 rounds of other 22                     ammunition.

23                   “(D) The dealer must agree to a minimum 24                   code of conduct that includes the following:

1                     “(i) A refusal to transfer a firearm or 2                     ammunition until the NICS background
3                     check system has verified that the transfer 4                     is not prohibited.

5                     “(ii) The implementation of a security 6                     system, including adequate locks, exterior
7                     lighting, surveillance cameras, alarm sys-8                     tems, and other anti-theft measures and 9                     practices that the Attorney General may 10                  through regulations prescribe.

11                  “(iii) A refusal to sell firearms in any 12                  marketplace, including online or at a gun 13                  show, unless the marketplace requires
14                  every firearm seller to complete a NICS
15                  background check on prospective firearm 16                  purchasers.

17                  “(iv) A refusal to transfer firearms or 18                  ammunition to any person that exhibits 19                  signs of alcohol or drug intoxication or 20                  cognitive or mental instability (as those 21                  terms are defined by the Attorney General, 22                  in coordination with the Secretary of 23                  Health and Human Services).

24                  “(v) A refusal to transfer a firearm or 25                  ammunition to any person the dealer

1           knows or has reason to believe poses a 2           danger to that person or others.

3                 “(vi) With respect to firearms, the im-
4                 plementation and maintenance of a re-5                 mote searchable electronic record of—

6                     “(I) the make, model, caliber or 7                     gauge, and serial number of every 8                     firearm in the inventory of the dealer; 9                     and

10                  “(II) the performance of quar-
11                  terly inventory checks.

12                 “(E) With respect to ammunition, the 13                 dealer must implement and maintain a remotely 14                 searchable electronic record of—

15                     “(i) importation;

16                     “(ii) production;

17                     “(iii) shipment;

18                     “(iv) receipt;

19                     “(v) sale; and 20                     “(vi) any other disposition of ammu-

21                     nition at the place of business of the dealer 22                     for such period, and in such form, as the 23                     Attorney General may by regulations pre-24                     scribe.

1                 “(F) The dealer must implement a manda-
2         tory training course developed by the Attorney 3         General, in coordination with the Secretary of 4         Health and Human Services, where appro-
5         priate—

6                 “(i) which, with respect to each em-7         ployee of the dealer authorized to engage 8         in the transfer of firearms or ammunition 9         in the course of the business—

10                 “(I) an employee as of the date 11         of enactment of this section completes 12         not later than 90 days after the date 13         of enactment of this section; and 14                 “(II) an employee hired after the 15         date of enactment of this section com-16         plete not later than 30 days after the 17         date on which the employee is hired;

18         and

19                 “(ii) that trains employees on—

20                 “(I) how to recognize and iden-21         tify—

22                 “(aa) straw purchasers; and 23                 “(bb) any other fraudulent 24         activity described in chapter 44

25         of title 18, United States Code;

1                 “(II) indicators that a person is 2                 attempting to purchase a firearm or 3                 ammunition illegally;

4                 “(III) how to recognize and iden-5                 tify indicators that an individual in-6                 tends to use a firearm for unlawful 7                 purposes;

8                 “(IV) how to recognize and iden-
9                 tify indicators that an individual in-
10                 tends to use a firearm for self-harm;

11                 “(V) how to prevent theft or bur-12                 glary of firearms and ammunition;

13                 “(VI) how to respond in the cir-
14                 cumstances described in subclauses (I)
15                 through (V) and the applicable report-16                 ing requirements;

17                 “(VII) how to verify the age of a 18                 purchaser of a firearm or ammuni-
19                 tion;

20                 “(VIII) with respect to a dealer 21                 of ammunition, how to detect whether 22                 a single purchaser has reached the ap-23                 plicable ammunition purchase limit to 24                 prevent a violation of subparagraph 25                 (C); and

1                         “(IX) other reasonable business
2                         practices that the Attorney General
3                         determines will deter firearm traf-
4                         ficking or deter the provision of a fire-5                         arm to an individual who indicates an 6                         intent to use a firearm for unlawful 7                         purposes or for self-harm.

8                         “(G) Not later than 30 days after the date 9                         on which the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Fire-10                        arms and Explosives releases to the dealer re-11                        sults of any compliance inspection conducted by 12                        the Bureau, the dealer must report the results 13                        of the inspection to any manufacturer or whole-14                        saler dealer from which the dealer obtains fire-15                        arms or ammunition.

16                         “(H) The dealer does not maintain finan-17                         cial ties valued at more than $1,000,000 annu-18                         ally with an entity that—

19                         “(i) during the 5-year period pre-20                         ceding the date of a sale or procurement 21                         described in paragraph (2) or (3), sepa-
22                         rated from the dealer through a spin-off 23                         transaction; and 24                         “(ii) does not comply with the require-25                         ments of this paragraph.

1           “(5) INSPECTION RESULTS.—With respect to 2       an inspection of a dealer described in paragraph 3       (4)(G), not later than 30 days after the date of the 4       inspection, the Director of the Bureau of Alcohol, 5       Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives shall send to the 6       Department of Defense a copy of the report.

7           “(6) REGULATIONS.—The Attorney General
8       may promulgate necessary regulations to implement 9       the requirements of this subsection.

10          “(7) INTERDEPARTMENT COORDINATION.—The 11       Attorney General, in coordination with the Secretary 12       of Defense, shall monitor compliance with paragraph 13       (4) by dealers.

14          “(8) PENALTY.—A dealer that violates para-
15       graph (4) may not participate in a sale or purchase 16       described in paragraph (2) or (3).

17          “(9) DATA SHARING.—Notwithstanding any 18       other law, the Attorney General may share crime 19       gun trace data with the Department of Defense as 20       necessary to carry out this section.

21          “(c) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—

22           “(1) GOVERNMENT-OWNED PLANT REPORT.—
23       Not less frequently than annually, each government-24       owned plant that produces any ammunition or fire-25       arms that are commercially sold shall submit to

1        Congress a report that includes, for the year covered 2        by the report—

3                “(A) the number of customers of the plant 4                for ammunition or firearms in the commercial 5                marketplace, disaggregated by the State in 6                which the customer is located;

7                “(B) the revenue of the plant from sales of 8                ammunition or firearms in the commercial mar-
9                ketplace;

10                “(C) the amount of ammunition or fire-11                arms sold by the plant in the commercial mar-
12                ketplace;

13                “(D) an operational plan for avoiding any 14                diversion of firearms or ammunition into the il-15                legal market or to customers not authorized for 16                purchase under this section; and 17                “(E) steps taken to implement the plan de-18                scribed in subparagraph (D).

19                “(2) DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE REPORT.—Not 20                less frequently than annually, the Secretary of De-21                fense shall submit to Congress a report containing 22                the following:

23                “(A) A list of manufacturers and dealers
24                from which the Secretary procures firearms

1           that also sell firearms in the commercial mar-
2           ket.

3           “(B) A list of the types of firearms those 4           dealers sell in the commercial market.

5           “(C) The amount of money the Secretary 6           pays to those dealers for firearms each year.

7           “(d) LICENSES FOR DEALING AMMUNITION.—

8           “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General shall 9           make licenses available to dealers of ammunition, 10          who may apply for such licenses for the purpose of 11          subsection (b)(4)(A)(ii) to be eligible to make the 12          sales or purchases described in paragraph (2) or (3) 13          of subsection (b).

14          “(2) REQUIREMENTS.—In making licenses 15          available in accordance with paragraph (1), the At-16          torney General shall apply in a substantially similar 17          manner the requirements under chapter 44 of title 18          18 for licenses of dealers of firearms to dealers of 19          ammunition.

20          “(3) NICS SYSTEM.—

21          “(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 180
22          days after the date of enactment of the Stop 23          Militarizing Our Streets Act of 2024, the Attor-
24          ney General shall authorize a dealer of ammu-25          tion licensed in accordance with paragraph (1)

1           to access and use the NICS background check 2           system in accordance with laws applicable to 3           the use of the NICS background check system.

4           “(B) AUTHORIZATION.—A dealer of am-5           munition authorized under subparagraph (A) 6           may use the NICS background check system for 7           the purpose of subsection (b)(4)(D) to be eligi-8           ble to make the sales or purchases described in 9           paragraph (2) or (3) of subsection (b).

10           “(C) AMMUNITION BACKGROUND
11           CHECKS.—A dealer of ammunition licensed in 12           accordance with paragraph (1) may perform a 13           NICS background check on an individual pur-14           chasing ammunition from the dealer.

15           “(e) REGULATIONS.—The Attorney General shall 16           promulgate a rule with requirements for dealers to comply 17           with the recordkeeping requirement described in sub-18           section (b)(4)(E).

19           “(f) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

20           “(1) AMMUNITION; FIREARM; MANUFAC-21           TURER.—The terms ‘ammunition’, ‘firearm’, and 22           ‘manufacturer’ have the meaning given those terms 23           in section 921(a) of title 18.

24           “(2) COVERED AMMUNITION.—The term ‘cov-
25           ered ammunition’—

1                 “(A) means ammunition that is larger 2                 than .22 caliber; and

3                 “(B) includes .223 Remington ammunition
4                 and 7.62 North Atlantic Treaty Organization
5                 ammunition.

6                 “(3) DEALER.—The term ‘dealer’—

7                 “(A) has the meaning given the term in 8                 section 921 of title 18; and 9                 “(B) includes any person engaged in the 10                 business of selling ammunition at wholesale or 11                 retail, including an unlicensed private vendor of 12                 ammunition.

13                 “(4) FINANCIAL TIES.—The term ‘financial 14                 ties’—

15                 “(A) has the meaning given the term by 16                 the Secretary of Defense in a regulation; and 17                 “(B) includes a revenue sharing agreement 18                 or a transfer of assets through a purchase or 19                 sale transaction.

20                 “(5) GAS-OPERATED.—The term ‘gas-operated’, 21                 with respect to a firearm, means that the firearm 22                 harnesses or traps a portion of the high-pressure gas 23                 from a fired cartridge to cycle the action using—

24                 “(A) a long stroke piston, in which gas is 25                 vented from the barrel to a piston that is me-

1           chanically fixed to the bolt group and moves to 2           cycle the action;

3           “(B) a short stroke piston, in which gas is 4           vented from the barrel to a piston that moves 5           separately from the bolt group so that the en-
6           ergy is imparted through a gas piston to cycle 7           the action;

8           “(C) a system that traps and vents gas 9           from the barrel or the chamber to directly 10          strike or impinge the bolt, bolt carrier, or slide 11          assembly to unlock and cycle the action;

12          “(D) a hybrid system that combines ele-
13          ments of a system described in subparagraph
14          (C) with a system described in subparagraph
15          (A) or (B) to capture gas vented from the bar-16          rel to cycle the action; or

17          “(E) a blowback-operated system that di-18          rectly uses the expanding gases of the ignited 19          propellant powder acting on the cartridge case
20          to drive the breechblock or breech bolt rear-21          ward.

22          “(6) GOVERNMENT-OWNED PLANT.—The term 23          ‘government-owned plant’ means a facility owned by 24          the Federal Government that produces firearms or 25          ammunition.

1           “(7) GUN SHOW.—The term ‘gun show’ means 2        a gun show or an event described in section 3        478.100(b) of title 27, Code of Federal Regulations, 4        or any successor regulation.

5           “(8) LARGE-CAPACITY AMMUNITION FEEDING
6        DEVICE.—The term ‘large-capacity ammunition
7        feeding device’—

8           “(A) means a magazine, belt, drum, feed 9        strip, or similar device, including any such de-10        vice joined or coupled with another in any man-11        ner, that has an overall capacity of, or that can 12        be readily restored, changed, or converted to ac-13        cept, more than 10 rounds of ammunition; and 14           “(B) does not include an attached tubular 15        device designed to accept, and capable of oper-16        ating only with, .22 caliber rimfire ammunition.

17           “(9) MILITARY-GRADE ASSAULT WEAPON.—The 18        term ‘military-grade assault weapon’ means a fire-19        arm that—

20           “(A) is semi-automatic;

21           “(B) is—

22           “(i) gas-operated or has been modified 23        to operate as a gas-operated firearm;

1                 “(ii) recoil-operated or has been modified
2                 to operate as a recoil-operated firearm, 3                 except for recoil-operated handguns; or 4                 “(iii) designed and functions, or can 5                 be readily modified, to materially increase 6                 the rate of fire of the firearm; and 7                 “(C) has—

8                 “(i) a fixed ammunition feeding device 9                 with the capacity to accept more than 10 10                 rounds of ammunition; or

11                 “(ii) the capacity to accept a large-capacity ammunition feeding device.

13                 “(10) NICS BACKGROUND CHECK.—The term
14                 ‘NICS background check’ means a background check 15                 through the national instant criminal background 16                 check system established under section 103 of the 17                 Brady Handgun Violence Prevention Act (34 U.S.C.
18                 40901).

19                 “(11) RECOIL-OPERATED.—The term ‘recoil-operated’ with respect to a firearm, means that the 20                 firearm uses the recoil force to unlock the breech 21                 bolt and complete the cycle of extracting, ejecting, 22                 and reloading.

1           “(12) SEMI-AUTOMATIC.—The term ‘semi-auto-
2       matic’, with respect to a firearm, means any repeat-3       ing firearm, other than a machine gun, that—

4           “(A) uses a portion of the energy of a fir-5       ing cartridge or shell to extract the fired car-6       tridge case or fired shell casing and chamber 7       the next round; and

8           “(B) requires a separate pull, release, 9       push, or other method of initiation of the trig-10      ger to fire each cartridge or shell.

11          “(13) SPIN-OFF TRANSACTION.—The term
12       ‘spin-off transaction’ means a transaction that sepa-
13       rates a division or line of business from a parent 14       company of an entity.
